SUBJECT: Warfel Construction Company Awarded $5.8 million movie theater contract

East Petersburg, PA – Warfel Construction was recently awarded a $5.8 million contract to build a new movie theater in York, PA. The 54,000 sq. ft. Frank Theatres complex will feature 13 theaters of varying sizes, a concession area, game room and a bar. Frank Theatres has been in existence since 1921 when motion picture pioneer Samuel Frank founded the company. The completion of the project in January 2010 will bring the theater chain count to nineteen locations .

Overseeing the project for Warfel is Senior Project Manager Mike Dorgan of York and Field Superintendent Tim Boos, of Lancaster. The project is designed by ADW Architects of Charlotte, NC and is being developed by Queensgate Partners, LP of Lancaster.

Generating revenues in excess of $80 million, Warfel Construction Company provides general construction, construction management and design/build services to clients in Pennsylvania and surrounding states. In business since 1911, Warfel employs over 90 people in field and office positions.
